

LYNETTA DICKERSON

SUBSTANCE ABUSE PROGRAM COORDINATOR

Lynetta's primary focus is implementing substance abuse prevention services for all ages, gender, ethnic groups, and demographics. She previously worked for the Department of Corrections from 2006 to 2017 serving in the following roles: Correctional Officer, Correctional Sergeant, Unit Property Control Supervisor, Program Specialist over Library/Law Library Services, and Classification/Assignment Officer all at the East Arkansas Regional Maximum-Security Unit.

Following her career in corrections, she began her career with the Department of Human Services serving as Program Eligibility Specialist and Program Eligibility Specialist Supervisor for the Division of County Operations.

When she is not working, Lynetta enjoys spending time with her children including playing kickball, assisting with homework, and attending sport events that her children are often participating. She is her children's biggest cheerleader! Lynetta says that her children are her joy and bring so much happiness and balance to her busy life.

Lynetta is a native of Marianna, Arkansas
