

Public Service Announcement Scripts

:15s

Unused prescription drugs in our homes puts our loved ones at risk, including our children. Keep prescription opioids out of the wrong hands and make sure every Arkansan is more than just a number by visiting A-R take back dot org to learn more.

:15s

Arkansans have safely disposed of and destroyed 290 tons of unused medication at Arkansas Take Back sites since 2010... and we're not done yet. Visit A-R take back dot org to find a drop off site near you.

:15s

The number of opioid-related overdoses is on the rise in Arkansas, leaving countless families and communities grappling with grief. Join the fight against opioids and learn how you can monitor medication in your home by visiting A-R take back dot org.

:15s

Statistically, old or unused prescription drugs in our homes are a risk to our children and loved ones. By monitoring our medication and keeping it out of the wrong hands, we can make sure they're more than just a number. Visit A-R take back dot org to learn more.

:15s

The number of loose prescriptions and pill bottles in our homes is a threat to every Arkansan. Stop what you're doing and secure any unused medication. Do your part. Learn more by visiting A-R take back dot org.

:15s

The number of unsecured prescription drugs in our homes is a threat to every Arkansan. Help us keep any old or unused medication secure. Because every Arkansan is more than just a number. Learn more by visiting A-R take back dot org.

:30s

Arkansans have safely disposed of and destroyed 290 tons of unused prescription medications collected at drug Take Back events since 2010 ... and we're not done yet! Drop off your unused prescriptions during Arkansas Take Back Day on [INSERT DATE] at [INSERT LOCATION]. Drop off is free and anonymous. Let's keep these unused drugs out of the wrong hands. We are in a fight against an epidemic; join the fight to do your part by dropping off your unused medications for safe disposal. Visit A-R take back dot org to learn more.

:30s

Unused prescription drugs in our homes puts Arkansas loved ones at risk, including our children. You can drop off your unused prescription drugs at more than 300 Arkansas Drug Take Back collections sites year-round. Drop off is free and anonymous. Keeping opioids out of the wrong hands makes sure every Arkansan is more than just a number, including those lost to overdose deaths. Join the fight against the opioid epidemic today and find a collection site near you by visiting A-R take back dot org.

:30s

The number of opioid-related overdoses is on the rise in Arkansas, leaving countless families and communities grappling with grief. Join us in the fight against our state's opioid epidemic and help monitor any old or unused medication in your home. Together, we can keep our children and loved ones safe. Because they're more than just a number. Visit A-R take back dot org to learn more.

:30s

Statistically, old or unused prescription drugs in our homes are a risk to Arkansas children, loved ones and communities. By monitoring the medication in our homes and keeping it out of the wrong hands, we can make sure every Arkansan is more than just a number. And with opioid overdoses on the rise, this is a number we can't afford to ignore. Visit A-R take back dot org to join in the fight against Arkansas' opioid epidemic.

ARKANSAS TAKE BACK

:30s

The number of loose prescriptions and pill bottles in our homes is a threat to every Arkansan. Stop what you're doing and secure any unused medication in your home, and do your part in Arkansas' fight against opioids. Because every Arkansan is more than just a number. Learn what to do with old or unused medication in your home by visiting A-R take back dot org.

:30s

The number of unsecured prescription drugs in Arkansas homes is a threat to our children, loved ones and communities.

Help keep them out of the wrong hands and secure any old or unused medication. Because their lives depend on it.

When you play your part in Arkansas' fight against opioids, you're making sure that every Arkansan is more than just a number.

Learn how to safely secure medication by visiting A-R take back dot org.